By Arthur Brisbane
REPUBLICAN CHIEFS are said to have "sidelacked" the naval construction program of $74,000,000 to avoid discussion and risk of a special session. The program would have provided one aircraft carrier, to include armor, ammunition and 114 airplanes, $17,600,000; also one flying-deck day cruiser, with 36 airplanes, costing $20,780,000; four submarines, costing $17,600,000; and 130 planes for $2,000,000, plus $3,000,000 for experimenting with Diesel engines. All this would have been strictly up-to-date defense, but it is abandoned to save the country from another session of its legislators.

On the other hand your wise gentlemen actually propose to spend $30,000,000 to "modernize" three old battleships, New Mexico, Mississippi and Idaho. And when they are modernized they will simply be nothing but targets for bombing planes and pleasant strutting-decks for naval officers too old to accept a new idea.

Sometimes consumptive patients have bright pink spots on either cheek, decalified, and hope not to be fulfilled. Yesterday, Wall Street saw a bright pink spot on each cheek, and looked remarkably well. Prices were up, from $2 to $15 a share. Brokers bought and sold more than 4,000,000, nearly four times as many as on the same day of the previous week. Hope springs eternal in the stock ticker, but nobody knows whether this is the pink spot of health, or the growing financial tuberculosis.

In connection with Russia's plan to conscript women for industry, government taking care of the babies while their mothers are at work, you read that this is done because of "the present serious shortage of labor in Russia." You wish we had that shortage here and wonder how the Russians manage it.

Russia's plan to open gigantic governmental nurseries to care for babies, while mothers are working in mills, forests, fields, mines or factories, will present problems that are not even Stalin can foresee. Separating women from their babies may be a dangerous experiment, even in Russia.

It is pleasant to hear of anyone's happiness and you will be delighted to know that Ireland is highly prosperous, "riding the wave of world depression." In 1930 the Irish exported more than $225,000,000 of goods, which is better than merely shipping money to British landlords. Irish banks are steady, the Irish Free State budget is sound. Those that used to say, "The Irish can govern anybody but themselves," may have been mistaken.

They can also govern themselves, if you get off their backs. On Thursday, day after tomorrow, Catholics between 10 a. m. and noon, and at the same time, may hear Pope Pius on the radio, and also Marconi, "father of wireless." The pope will speak briefly in Latin, his message translated in English and, perhaps, other languages, by the announcer.

Later, there will be broadcast a formal address by the Pope at a Vatican ceremony.

Who, a few years ago, would have thought that a Pope, from the Vatican, would be able to talk to the whole world?

If you ever become well acquainted with a lady named Guillermina Guerrero, or one like her, don't tittle with her affections.

Maximo Azevedo did this in Mexico City. Guillermina dressed herself as a boy, found faithful Maximo and danced with another girl, followed, and shot them both.

An opera, like Cavalleria, or Pagliacci, represents a generation. The Latin temperament feels everything, especially regret, strongly. They know why the affections are as violent as the journey. It must be an exciting life.

People in New York, greatest state in population, are too busy to add to population as they did once. The birth rate has fallen 50 per cent in 16 years. Birth control advocates say the silver lining is getting "fewer and brighter babies," but that is not convincing.

To offset the decreased baby cry, the general birth rate is at its lowest for all time. Of 1000 population, only 17.7 die at a year. Deaths from tuberculosis are diminishing steadily, thanks to science. On the other hand, cancer and diabetes gather momentum and more victims.

JUDGE FLAYS MISS DEVOE FOR THEFT

Five Years' Probation to Follow Jail Term; No Appeal Made to Sentence

Los Angeles, Feb. 10.—Daisy De Voe, blonde ex-secretary, who was convicted of stealing $825 from Clara Bow, the screen star, today was given 15 months in the county jail, five years' probation and a stern reprimand from the bench.

The court's decision was prefaced by a request from Miss De Voe's counsel that she be permitted to withdraw her application for probation, reasoning that she had served nearly three weeks ago.

Miss De Voe stood firmly and looked intently at the court as Judge Dornan quickly announced his decision.

NO APPEAL MADE
After the court had told her she would not have to serve a possible prison term of one to ten years, she looked at her attorney William Byrne for an instant and then apparently reasoning herself to the court's judgment walked from the county jail. No attempt was made to appeal the motion for a new trial, denied a week ago.

One of the largest throngs seen during the De Voe case was attracted to the courthouse.

In passing up to his decision, Judge Dornan told Miss De Voe: "You conducted systematic

Girl Agitator Arrested and Ex-Mayor Trod Upon by Horse in Riot

WHEN 100 COMMUNISTS defied police on Boston Common today and engaged them in a riot, the police seized several prisoners. Then the "Reds" battled the police to free the prisoners—failing, of course. This photo shows two police leading a woman agitator, who had refused to be quiet, away to the lockup. Great crowds gathered, the demonstration coming at noon when the streets were filled with men, women and many children, and it was nearly an hour before order was restored. (Staff photos.)

New York, Feb. 10.—The stock market again advanced markedly today, although late profit-taking in Wall Street reduced earlier gains that ran from 30 to over 50 a share in the broad list.

Ancient State Prison Unfit and Like Devil's Island

By ALAN FRAZER
The "Big House" at Charles town—what's wrong with it?

I have inspected the 125-year-old old penitentiary from end to end, the first reporter to do so in many years.

Despite the wholehearted efforts of prison officials to improve conditions, here is what I found:

THE WORKSHOPS, chapel, other structures, are fire hazards, its cell blocks, fire traps.

ITS HOSPITAL service is a shabby joke.

ITS WHOLE PLACE is a school of crime, its inmates of every type, every age and every habit, huddled together.

IN SANITATION it is little better than a cesspool.

'LOST' HEIRESS FOUND IN HOTEL

New York, Feb. 10 (AP)—Twenty-year-old heiress of Yonkers, ended today when she was found today "reading his own life" at the Hotel Pricedilly.

According to the police, Miss Parker explained her abrupt departure from her Yonkers home on Jan. 26, by saying she had a disagreement with her stepfather, James MacDonough, vice-president of the Standard Oil Co.

After greeting her daughter, Miss Parker had been at the hotel since the day of her disappearance, she registered under the name of "Rene Dennis." She had plenty of money, she said, and had had an enjoyable time.

That remains to be seen, was the girl's response, indicating she is not eager to go back to Yonkers.

For a time she attended classes at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in Carnegie Hall and also handled herself writing short stories, she told police.

Concord Church Riot and a Few More Are Rounded Up, While Others Visit Ely

Police reserves battled Communists during a demonstration on Boston Common today.

Twelve persons, including two women, former Mayor Robert A. Bateson of Peabody and Rev. O. D. Foster, pastor of Trinity Episcopal Church, Concord, were arrested. Bateson was held three hours by the force of a policeman.

The demonstration, sponsored by the unemployed council of the Trade Union Unity League, was the most serious of its nature since the Sacco-Vanzetti disturbance of 1927.

At 1:30 Communists or unemployed participated and a noonday crowd of several hundred witnessed the scene.

Reserve were sent to the scene from eight police divisions and at one time there were 125 officers on duty.

TROUBLE STARTS
Trouble started shortly after noon, when a group from the Trade Union Unity League attempted to march across the Common.

Denied the use of the handstand, one leader attempted to address the crowd. He was surrounded by two guards. He was arrested by Capt. Jeremiah D. Galloway.

At 1:30 a. m. E. S. T. a program arranged by the National Students' Congress.

Chairman Payne of the Red Cross will speak from Washington. He will be followed by Governor Parrell of Arkansas, representing the State most severely affected by the drought, and Governor Case of Rhode Island, representing the State which has most recently reversed the appeal for the drought.

Parrell will speak from Little Rock and Case from Providence.

Seven leaders who attempted to lead the crowd at the Shaw Memorial, which is just outside the main entrance to the State House, were taken into custody.

Five mounted policemen appeared and rode into the crowd. Bateson, former Socialist mayor of Peabody, and Rev. Mr. Foster, were taken into custody.

DEBS ASKED TO GIVE UP WORK

Life of Leisure Should Be One of Joy, Declares Mrs. Robert C. Terry

"Give the working girl a sporting chance."

This appeal to Boston debutantes is made by two prominent society women, Mrs. Dorothy Whipple Fry of Clybourn, Brookline, and Mrs. Robert Cushing Terry of Hingham in the current issue of the Boston Breeze.

"Many are the parties which have opened to society girls in the past few years. And very enticing, too, are these avenues of escape from the playhouse bondage of all-enveloping domesticity," writes Mrs. Fry, who is a daughter of the late Sherman L. Whipple.

BETTER BE LESS MODERN

"Just now, however, in these days of the passing of the dividend and the ending of last year's lengthened evening dress, the 'modern girl' had better be less modern."

"Unless she can find a job which is not directly needed by someone in less fortunate circumstances, she had better seek self-expression elsewhere than in a job."

Mrs. Terry, who until her wedding last Saturday was Marienne Upton of Cambridge, and who dates "the birth of modern woman" as between 1914 and 1918, calls her article "A Crisis in Leisure." She writes:

"Nothing is challenged by a new situation. Abandon your stores, get out of your office, stop shilly-shallying with all these stop-gaps to thinking and living. Have the boldness to take leisure firmly by the hand and make of it an inspiration and a joy. Give the working girl a

FORCED FROM BEDS INTO STORM BY FIRE

WITH HARDLY ENOUGH TIME to snatch coats and blankets for protection, occupants of the house at 28 Leroy st., Dorchester, fled into the storm-swept street early today before the menace of fire. In this group warming themselves after the excitement are Lillian, Mary, Miriam and Saul Cohen, and Myrtle and Frances Rosenthal.

12 Routed in Snow Storm by Dorchester Fire

Police and fire officials are investigating a mysterious two-alarm blaze which swept a three-story wooden dwelling at 28 Leroy st., Dorchester, early today, driving 12 persons, clad only in nightclothes, into a blinding snowstorm.

Although officials have not given any definite cause for the blaze, a firebug is believed to have been responsible. The fire started in the basement and worked to the rear of the house. From here it spread up the rear stairway to the unoccupied third floor and swept this part of the building.

The first two floors were occupied by a group of other wooden dwellings and for this reason a second alarm was sounded by Deputy Chief Walter M. McLean.

Manuel Rosenthal, 22, sleeping on the first floor, was awakened by the blaze and aroused the other members of his family. They were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Rosenthal, two sisters, Myrtle, 23, and Frances, 12, and a brother, Henry, 17. He led them all to the front and rushed back to the second floor of the building.

Here he awakened the family of Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Cohen. In addition to the parents there were three daughters, Mary, 21, Miriam, 13, and Lillian, 15, and one son, Saul, 12.

PENALTY FOR LEGAL RUM RAIDS URGED

Clashes Mark the Hearings on Liquor Measures at State House

Asserting the Constitutional right of citizens to privacy in their own homes, Representative Joseph A. Logan, of Boston, before the legislative Committee on Legal Affairs today urged passage of a bill making it a crime for officers to enter a home seeking liquor without search warrants.

Or a series of liquor bills which the committee heard at its meeting today, Logan said, this was the only one which Attorney General Palmer, who said the Anti-Saloon League would admit any value.

WOULD RAISE CONTENT

Logan also argued for a bill increasing the allowable alcohol content of beverages to 4 1/2 percent, declaring the present maximum had driven people from light wines and beer to "whiskey, gin and other potent."

A bill which would repeal all existing state laws forbidding keeping and sale of liquor was urged by its author, Representative John S. Tobham of Cambridge, who said the state should put it up to the federal government "to enforce the unenforceable Eighteenth Amendment" and thus bring an impossible situation to an early solution.

Logan's search warrant bill would make illegal entry punishable by a fine of $5 to $50 and discharge of the sheriff, deputy sheriff, marshal, police chief, deputy chief, police officer or constable who was guilty.

AIMED AT GRAFT

"This bill would stop graft and prevent police from entering homes and taking advantage of whatever they happen to see," he said. "Testimony was given in the Garret case about officers who made seizures without war."

RESCUED CREW REACHES PORT

Newport, R. I., Feb. 10—Capt. Wallace Walker and his crew of seven, who nearly lost their lives when their fishing sloop Aloma, out of Gloucester, sank at midnight Saturday off Nantucket Lightship, were brought here today.

The fishermen arrived aboard the Coast Guard cutter Legare, which took them off Nantucket Lightship yesterday.

With Capt. Walker, whose home is in Gloucester, were William M. Doyle of Revere, Alexander Doyle of Dorchester, Ernest Mallert of Medford, James Powers of Gloucester, Daniel Magner and Patrick Easton of Gloucester and Joseph Pettigrew of East Boston.

Capt. Walker said he was moving the craft to a new location during the storm at midnight Saturday when the sloop became fouled in a net.

In endeavoring to pull the sloop free, the stuffing box was torn out, allowing water to come in so fast that the pumps could not keep up with it, nor could the gap be stopped.

Nature plays cruel pranks on girls who haven't learned

A marvel at tennis. Everywhere at once, alert and dangerous. Deftly returning each swift play. Stopping the fastest volley with amazing skill.

What a pity she has not learned to stop periodic pains as easily! In just a few moments, with Midol. One or two tablets, taken in time, will render those dreaded days entirely painless. If your suffering has already started, it will subside in five to seven minutes. No matter how great your usual discomfort. Whether you're four, or forty, Midol ends the pain safely, and in a hurry.

Midol does not hurt or even hinder the natural periodic process. But it does banish the unnatural pain.

Specialists produced Midol. It is not a narcotic. So you may use it, with perfect confidence, and often as there is the slightest need.

More than one million modern women have turned to these tiny tablets for relief of such suffering. And Midol has removed every excuse for ever giving in to periodic pains; headaches, neuralgia, etc.

MICHEL HIT AS 'HOOVER PERIL'

Washington, Feb. 10 (AP)—Senator Schull wrote to President Hoover today refusing the administration's request to withdraw the name of Ernest A. Michel as his nominee for a Minnesota federal judgeship.

In a 400-word letter the blind Republican senator suggested Michel's name be submitted to the Senate with the objections of the President and Atty-Gen. Mitchell attached.

As a Republican and a Senator, Michel wrote, "let me implore you, Mr. President, not to close your eyes to the lessons of recent political history."

Tait wrecked his administration by installing Baileys Harding wrecked his by trusting Fall, Baugherty and others of lesser notoriety like the late Hugh Holland.

NAVAL PROGRAM TERMED ERROR

Washington, Feb. 10 (AP)—Opposition to the $20,000,000 battleship modernization program was requested by Representative French, Republican, Idaho, today in declaring before the House Rules Committee to undertake it would be "an unfortunate mistake."

He said high naval officers had begun to believe "the battleship is not the ship of the fleet it was and added 'aircraft and the submarine are taking its place.'"

As the backbone of the fleet, he said, the battleship is a "type that is passing away."

The Idelson said two thirds of the members of the Senate and the House Naval Committee were from sections having navy yards and bases. He charged they were influenced by the personal self-interest of their constituents.

ills of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, and for rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness. What, indeed, could be wiser than to profit by their experience. For your health's sake see what Konjola has done and is doing. Visit the Konjola Man at the Epstein drug store, Kontin's, Scollay Square, Boston. Hear of actual cases, any number of them, where Konjola has triumphed after all else tried had been found wanting. Read this opinion of Konjola from Mr. Geo. W. Slavin, Commonwealth Hotel, 55 Bowdoin Street, Boston, then you will better understand why seven million bottles of Konjola were used in two years. Mr. Slavin said to the Konjola Man: "I know from my own experience that Konjola is a good medicine. As the result of liver trouble I was ill, had headaches and dizzy spells. My appetite was not good and I felt the need of a good tonic. But what to take was the question. Then I heard about Konjola, and after learning that it was made from roots and herbs, I decided to try it. Well, Konjola restored my health. I have improved in every way and feel it my duty to tell others about this new remedy. I gladly give my sincere endorsement to Konjola."

If you have health guard it; it is your most valued possession. If you suffer from ills that Konjola is designed to relieve, give Konjola a chance to prove its powers. A test is all that is asked for Konjola. The Konjola Man is at Epstein's, Scollay Sq., Epstein Drug Co., Boston, where daily he is meeting the public and explaining the merits of this master medicine. Konjola is sold also at all leading drug stores in Boston and vicinity.

The witness, John H. Bartlett of New Hampshire, former assistant postmaster general, said he was present at the conference between Foster and New.

WEEI Is Silenced When Ice Snaps Weymouth Antenna

The breaking of an antenna, strung between two steel towers 800 feet above the ground at Weymouth, caused suspension of radio broadcasting of station WEEI today.

Ice coating on the antenna was blamed for the accident, according to Louis Whitcomb, station director. Officials shortly before noon said they would be unable to say when broadcasting would be resumed.

The broken strand of wire 150 feet in length is known as the main antenna. As soon as the accident occurred a detail of repair men was sent to the scene but because of the slippery condition of the towers the workers found it too dangerous to risk the climb.

AGE REDUCTION IS SOUGHT FOR PENSION BILL

Wendell Thore, Father of the Measure, Favors a Reduction of Age to 60 Years

"Don't wait until the old men and women of Massachusetts reach the coffin age before giving them old-age assistance," said Wendell P. Thore, of Squantum, at a hearing before the joint legislative committee on pensions.

He advocated reducing the age limit from 72 to 60 at which a person could apply for assistance.

The bill was amended so that it would be administered by the State Board of Retirement, instead of the public welfare department, and it was lowered. He also favored taking out of the present law, which is effective next July, the support-our-parents section.

Miss Ruth Korteing said that one-third of the aged persons in this State who will receive assistance under the new law live in Boston.

Some of those who favored raising the age limit to either 60 or 65 years included Representative Paul A. Dever of Cambridge, Charles Ingram, and Mrs. Sarah Dupont of Cambridge.

MANY things can make a youngster fretful—sluggish bowels; a touch of colic; when teething or after trying times. But there's only one remedy a mother should ever use to comfort an ailing child in any of these conditions. Castoria.

This pure old-fashioned remedy most mothers have learned to depend on, comforts a child like nothing else. It has an important place in the lives of five million modern homes where mothers keep it always on hand, so they will be ready to render first aid when a child is ailing.

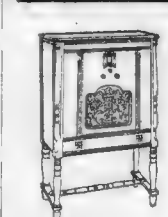

Watch your child's tongue; when it is coated, or when he or she is fussy, let this pure vegetable preparation come to the aid of that sour stomach or clogged bowels.

The beauty of Castoria is that it can be given as often as needed. It contains no harmful ingredients. The doctor says it is gentle, tells you how mild and bland it is. It is a children's remedy, made especially for the children. Ideal for infants, because it is in larger doses for a child in his teens.

Genuine Fletcher's Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

RUSSELL MAY SUBMIT NEW OMNIBUS

Hundreds Are Expected to Be Present at the Reading of State Auditor's Report

A police detail, in command of Capt. John J. Connelley, will mingle with the hundreds who are expected to crowd into the Cambridge City Hall, tonight, to listen to a renewal of the battle between members of the Cambridge City Council and Mayor Richard M. Russell, who seeks to oust from office City Treasurer Henry P. Lehan.

The controversy between the Mayor and the council, now nearly a year old, took added interest Saturday when Director Theodore N. Wastell, of the State Division of Accounts, announced that an audit of the city treasury had shown a deficit of $271,079.68 and a cash discrepancy of $207,036.

MAJOR OUT OF CITY

The police guard at the council meeting was ordered by Chief John J. Connelley. The chief's order calls for the presence at the meeting of Capt. Connelley, two sergeants and a detail of ten officers.

Mayor Russell was not at his office in City Hall this morning. His secretary said that he had no intention of submitting a new name to the council.

TO READ REPORT
In the event that Mayor Russell submits a new name for the office of city treasurer to the city council tonight, action for or against an appointment can be taken. Any name submitted for consideration must remain on the table for a week.

A lovely Coast oyster of the sort heretofore considered good only for eating, at 6 cents the quart, yesterday stepped into the jewelry market where it produced a genuine large-sized pearl within its tiny recesses.

The lucky finder, Louis Paleis, of 46 Adams st., Quincy, who has revealed that he always buys oysters with the faint hope of finding a prized gem, thought he was the owner of a common beach pebble at first.

But Vance Burke, Quincy jeweler, desisted that thought when he pronounced the find worth at least $100 in any market.

Now that his dream is fulfilled he refuses to sell the pearl. It will adorn the finger of his daughter, Mary, 8, on her birthday next November, after it has been polished and set in a ring.

Oyster Gives Girl a Gem

Stolen things—or one sneak thief's pranks—covered a rooming holiday through the night, collecting a variety of articles from automobiles, apartments, rooms and apartments.

The thief or thieves, however, never will become wealthy on his loot, which ranged from a pen and pencil set to a pair of ladies' shoes.

1000 GET WORK ON SNOW; COLD WAVE ON WAY

Rapid Drop in Temperature Is Predicted; Cape Couple Hit by Lightning

More than 1000 men, previously unemployed, were ordered to work today by Commissioner Joseph A. Rourke of the public works department to clear the streets of slush and snow before the arrival of a cold snap expected in Boston late today.

The men were aided by a motor truck squad of 50 trucks which were used for plowing and carrying away the heavy snow and slush.

MERCURY TO FALL
Weather bureau officials promised that this afternoon would see falling temperatures, and a quick freezing of the slushy streets was promised. The temperature of 34 degrees at noon will be 15 degrees lower by tonight, the weather men predicted.

The storm passed out to sea off Nantucket this morning, leaving a precipitation of icy slush which, made motor and pedestrian travel hazardous.

The combination of rain, slush and snow in yesterday's storm made walking extremely dangerous. Alfred P. Vialle, 69, of 58 Corey st., Brookline, dropped dead on Huntington ave. from heart failure.

COUPLE INHURTED
On the Cape a violent thunderstorm raged, and an aged couple narrowly escaped death at West Chatham when lightning struck their cottage. The couple, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Small, were carried to the home of a neighbor when the cottage burst into flames.
